

Occupants Policy

- Units may be rented to and occupied by a single family; all occupants must be legally related.
- Units may be rented to unrelated persons provided all adult and minor occupants are of the same gender.
- Under no circumstances may any unit be occupied by adults or minors of different genders who are not members of the same family.